

Targeting Michigan Proficiency – New Listening Format (part 3)

Unit 3 – pg. 32

1. What is true about the right side of the brain?
2. What does the passage say about the brain?
3. Where are emotions generated?
4. What is the function of the amygdala?
5. Where is the amygdala situated?

Unit 10 – pg. 111

1. How many people can a single donor help?
2. How many types of donation are discussed?
3. What percentage of patients die in Australia due to lack of donor parts?
4. Which organ has the longest waiting period?
5. Who would a tissue transplant help?

Unit 5 – pg. 60

1. How many examples of animal self-treatment are cited?
2. How did scientists initially react to the idea of animals deliberately treating themselves?
3. What do elephants extract from the volcanic rock?
4. Why do the speakers call the example of the lower baboon to our attention?
5. What do the elephants do once they have dug out the rocks?

Unit 12 – pg. 131

1. What is the main difference between aging men and women?
2. When may women appear to age faster?
3. What does the broadcast claim about women?
4. What can't doctors agree on?
5. What do they say about estrogen?

Unit 8 – pg. 91

1. How much TV do American children watch daily?
2. The impact of TV violence ...
3. What is one thing that is not attributed to TV violence?
4. How can peer pressure be offset?
5. How do they suggest parents protect children from the effects of TV violence?